

electric company, there appears to be no likelihood of a further electric cooperative forming in Maryland.

3. Since passage of the Electric Cooperative Act in 1941, there have been only two amendments to the Act, both to § 402, dealing with deeds of trust and investments. Other than these amendments, the Act has remained untouched for 34 years.

The Maryland Public Service Commission and STATE Department of Assessments and Taxation agreed to the decodification, and the attorneys for the two Maryland electric cooperatives also expressed no objections to the Act's decodification.

SECTION 2. AND BE IT FURTHER ENACTED, That the Revisor's Note contained in this Act is not law and may not be considered to have been enacted as part of this Act.

SECTION 2. AND BE IT FURTHER ENACTED, That, on or before January 1, 2002, the Department of Legislative Services shall prepare draft legislation that provides a nonsubstantive revision of Chapter 179 of the Acts of the General Assembly of 1976 and transfers that revision of Chapter 179 of the Acts of the General Assembly of 1976 from the Session Laws to the Annotated Code of Maryland.

SECTION 3. AND BE IT FURTHER ENACTED, That Section 1 of this Act shall take effect October 1, 2001.

SECTION 4. AND BE IT FURTHER ENACTED, That, except as provided in Section 3 of this Act, this Act shall take effect June 1, 2001.

The Honorable Casper R. Taylor, Jr.
Speaker of the House
State House
Annapolis MD 21401

Dear Mr. Speaker:

In accordance with Article II, Section 17 of the Maryland Constitution, I have today vetoed House Bill 1075 – Coordination of Immunization Services Act of 2001.

This bill creates the Immunet Program within the Department of Health and Mental Hygiene. The Immunet Program is a computerized information and reminder system used to improve the timely and appropriate delivery of immunizations.

Senate Bill 626, which was passed by the General Assembly and signed by me, accomplishes the same purpose. Therefore, it is not necessary for me to sign House Bill 1075.

Sincerely,
Parris N. Glendening
Governor
